Foreword

Morristown High School—Our World Today—Our Past Tomorrow.

Our school, a sphere of activity within the world, possesses us as we possess it. Soon, however, we must yield ownership of this world to those who follow.

When we find ourselves in new worlds, we may at times desire to return, to seek refuge from the difficulties of the new world into which we have been thrust; but we can never return. As time and place separate us from our world of today, our ties fade, until the only bond which remains is that of memory.

It is our hope that the 1965 ITAKHA will serve to spark memories of our high school world as you go into the new world which is awaiting you, and that these memories will be pleasant ones.

quest for knowledge . . .

Throughout our academic endeavors, we seek the personal satisfaction of understanding the manifold ways of society. As our days are filled with classes, friends, and activities, we see ourselves in a relationship of individuals living and working together; and we realize the need for a deep sense of responsibility.

As we are inspired by God and man, we rise to the challenge of learning and thus begin our quest for knowledge.

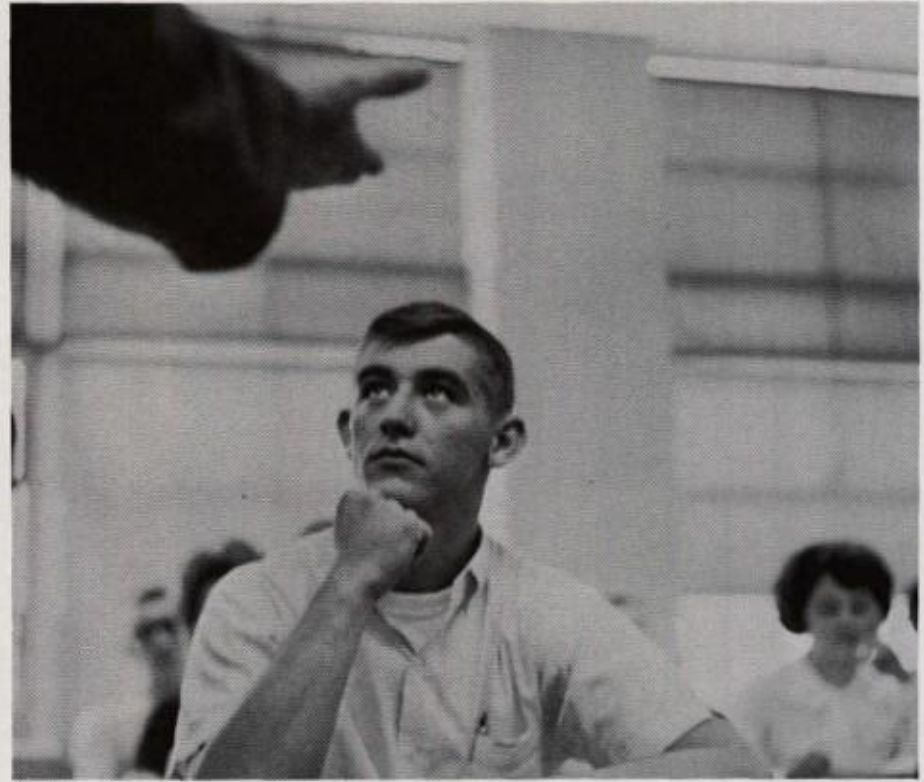

Johnny Thompson gives Carolyn Scott a line—but this time it pertains to algebraic graphing.

Mr. Brown develops within his students a keener awareness of the freedom which prevails in our America.

academic progress . . .

Freedom is the greatest of God's gifts to man. Understanding this, we must conscientiously strive to eradicate all threats to our freedom—whether these be physical or ideological.

To study the past is advisable; to learn from it, essential. For knowledge through enlightened education is the greatest foe of any form of tyranny over the minds of men. Consequently, we learn so that we may continue to preserve the freedoms that are ours.

season made for joys . . .

Many moods are expressed in our world of recreation while our world of study is pushed aside for a moment. We enjoy movies at the local drive-in, joining friends at a hootenanny, or participating in a favorite sport—but best of all is a sweet “thank you” at the end of the evening—and a hoped-for promise of a call tomorrow. These are only a few of the joys which we experience during the season of youth.

Pam Trobaugh demonstrates that a pleasant hobby can also be a graceful art as she jumps her prize winning horse, Cottonstockin's.

Enthusiasm is enhanced by friendly

Trainer Walter Thorn sees that fullback Eddie Rhines keeps a cool head in the heat of battle.

Through competition we experience the joy of winning victories from hard-fought foes, whether it be on the political platform, on the gridiron, or in the field of honors bestowed by fellow classmates. Yet we must also face defeat with courage and with the hope that next time we will be the victors.

Glenna Graham and Gary Blackburn, well known among the students for their political antagonisms, would rather fight than switch.

Aydin Eroglu and Mike Benning are amused at Janice Pangle's attempts to fit together the four parts of Aydin's Turkish ring.

We are increasingly aware of a very real need to live in friendly harmony with others during our high school years. Whether this means bringing a problem to a teacher in whom we have confidence, making friends with the exchange students, or just having a good time over a tasty Pizza, friendship is an essential part in the development of our personality.

It is said that within the heart of every man lies dormant a hidden creation: a hope, a wish, an undeveloped fervor, an unwritten poem, a melody.

To the inspired individual there is no unattainable goal—no wish too dear, no problem insurmountable.

When the storehouse of mental treasure is unlocked, one experiences one of the most illuminating and thrilling occurrences of his entire life—inspiration.

Striving to promote cooperation and harmony in all phases of school life, this year's Student Council has sponsored many varied activities.

In addition to the annual projects which include presenting the Harvest Festival, publishing the student directory, preparing club schedules, holding student elections, and promoting school spirit through dress-up and color days, the council has initiated several new projects. "Beat Kingsport Week" was proclaimed and sponsored; two freshman orientation programs, designed to introduce new students to the school and its organizations, were offered; and the constitution of the Student Council was completely revised.

Innovations sparked THE HURRICANE, Morristown High School's student newspaper, this year as the staff gave the school community a printed edition distributed free each week.

The new offset process enabled the staff to produce more pictures, sharper copy and brighter pages in each Friday's issue. The latest news and more details about coming events highlighted each double paged weekly while a larger monthly issue offered features illustrated by staff-made photographs and colorful drawings.

recognized by Beta Club . . .

The members of the Beta Club endeavor to stimulate within the student body a sincere desire for greater scholastic improvement. Each member is required to maintain a "B" average, to hold fast to principles of honesty, to endeavor constantly to maintain a creditable record, and to cultivate and conduct the principles of service and leadership.

An impressive initiation ceremony for the new members was held in November at the Morristown Power Building with Senator Herbert Walters as the guest speaker.

With the thought that through serving others we best serve ourselves, the Beta Club members prepared baskets at Thanksgiving, sent fruit to Hamblen Hall and contributed toys for Greene Valley Hospital and School.

The Anchor Club is a newly formed service organization sponsored by the Pilot Club of Morristown, Inc. and Pilot International. Anchor serves the school and community through initiative, leadership, experience, and cooperation.

The Anchor Club has taken a very active part in school activities by participating in the Petticoat Olympics and by conducting a successful Harvest Festival project. Members earned service hours by working in the high school office during the summer months, sponsoring a luncheon for the teachers during in-service training, and serving refreshments on Teacher Appreciation Day.

Anchors have served those in need by collecting used eyeglasses and frames for the New Jersey Eye Center, by saving stamps for the veterans at the Johnson City VFW Hospital, and by sending soap scraps overseas. In cooperation with Morristown Pilots, the members have also participated in a safety project.

The club extended courtesy to tourists through the Hospitality Center at David Greene Bridge and greeted visitors at the United Fund Booths. Service was also given to the retarded children through day camp and swimming lessons.

The uniforms and crest made and displayed by Anchor Club members are examples of the hard work which has made this newly organized club a notable success.

The National Chapter of the YWCA, represented at Morristown High School by the Senior Y-Teens, endeavors to establish high standards of Christian conduct in high school junior and senior girls.

Members must maintain a "C" average and must be willing to devote their time and efforts to the projects in which the club participates.

During the year, the club sponsored a project at the Harvest Festival; distributed Thanksgiving baskets; and participated in the Petticoat Olympics. The club also attended various churches as a group throughout the year.

Any freshman or sophomore girl who maintains a "C" average, wishes to build a Christian fellowship of young women, and is devoted to the task of realizing social living may become a member of the Junior Y-Teens.

The club, sponsored by the YWCA, raised funds by participating in the Harvest Festival and the Petticoat Olympics. They also enjoyed a Christmas party and various other social events.

The Junior Y-Teens seek the true meaning of the Christian way of life in order that they might live in harmony and understanding with others. In keeping with this objective, the club attended different churches at designated times during the year.

Notable services which have been beneficial to the school and community have been sponsored by the Morristown Key Club. Campus beautification has been promoted by the club placing trash cans at convenient locations; and the stable for the annual Christmas pageant was built by members of the club. Other projects included helping the Chamber of Commerce set up the Christmas Parade by directing the visiting bands to their designated positions, and collecting informational magazines to be sent to our school teachers, missionaries, and Peace Corps workers abroad.

The Key Club, sponsored by Kiwanis International, annually sends delegates to its district and national conventions. To raise necessary funds, they sold concessions for the Mutual Concerts, parked cars and checked hats at the country club, provided twenty-five boys as extras for the Passion Play, and conducted a "slave day" sale.

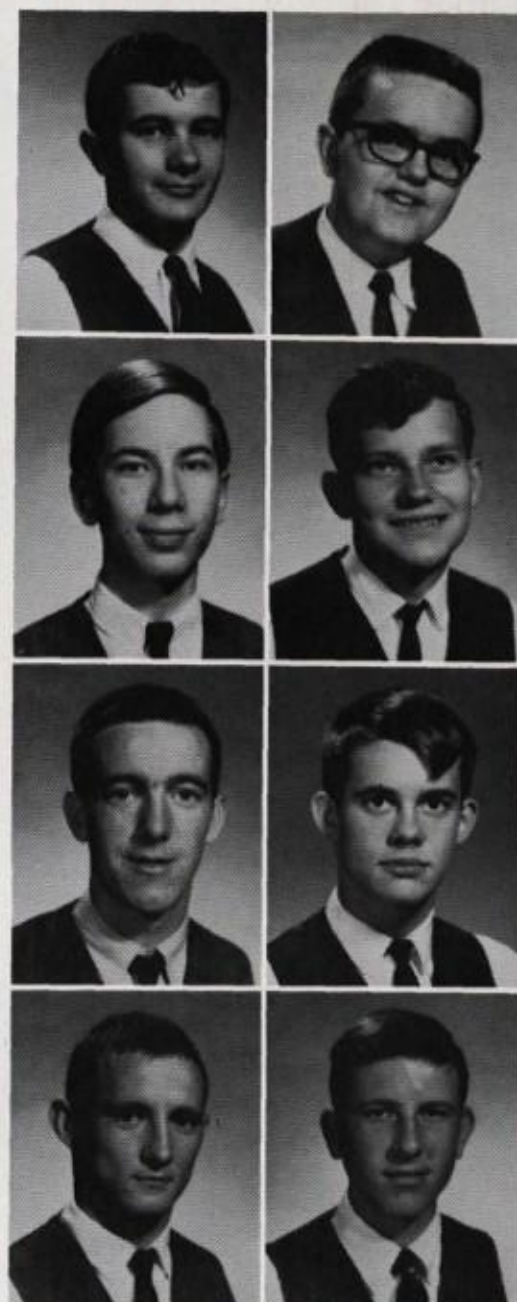

The membership is comprised of sophomore, junior, and senior young men who maintain a "C" average and commit themselves to devote a required amount of time working on service projects.

Morristown hosts Hi-Y -

John Sides, Doug Davis, Jimmy Owen, and Wayne Smith adorn the school with welcome signs for convention delegates.

Morristown became a "convention city," when the 1964 East Tennessee District Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y Conference was held at Morristown High School. The theme of the annual event was "Freedom—the Challenge."

Right: Visitors get "pinned" and registered upon arrival Friday evening.

The patriotic theme of the convention, "Freedom—the Challenge," was emphasized throughout the weekend in workshops, and in the stirring key-note address delivered by Dr. William Lee from Tusculum College, a refugee from Communist China.

Delegates "sing along with Backstrom" during the opening session.

Right: Saturday workshops informed and stimulated delegates.

Tri-Hi-Y District Convention . . .

After a busy day the interest turned to the lighter side featuring a banquet, a delightful address by Dr. Ruth Stephens and a "sock hop" to top off the evening.

Officers and sponsors played a vital role in keeping the conference "moving."

Special guests and officers attending the banquet are Dr. Stephens, Jay Wilson, president, Mr. Clif Backstrom, State YMCA Secretary, Mary Elizabeth Hill, recording secretary, and Miss Jo Ellen Ottinger, advisor.

After attending the worship service Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian Church, a successful convention came to a close with countless memories and moments of inspiration.

Marilyn Dountz and Jay Wilson really get into the "swing of things" Saturday night.

The Alpha Tri-Hi-Y, made up of junior and senior young women, maintained its spirit of service by participating in numerous projects.

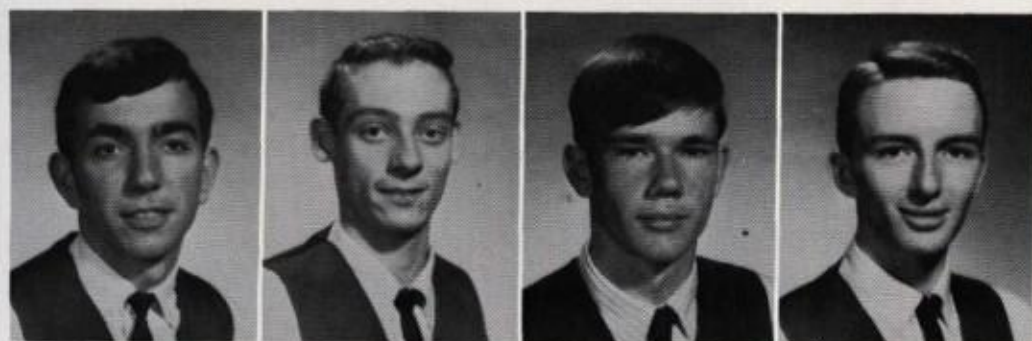

Under the sponsorship of the Lions Club, the organization collected money for the blind on "Gum Day," sold tickets for the American History Museum, and donated money to the John F. Kennedy Memorial Fund. Several members of the club participated in the production of The Passion Play and represented the Alpha Tri-Hi-Y in the annual Christmas Parade by riding on the floats.

In service to their home, school and community, the Alpha Hi-Y has participated in numerous beneficial activities. The club assisted in cleaning the Morristown-Hamblen Day Care Center, built a float for the Chamber of Commerce Christmas Parade, prepared Christmas baskets for underprivileged families, provided a beautiful Christmas tree for the front of the school, supported the Youth and Government Program in Nashville, and served as co-hosts to the annual Hi-Y convention.

Funds to support these projects were raised by co-sponsoring the Hi-Y—Key Club football game.

An eventful year for the Beta Tri-Hi-Y was made possible through many fields of service. Among these activities were the adoption of a "grandmother" at Hamblen Hall; the promotion of an American History Museum in collaboration with their co-sponsors, the Hamblen Kiwanis Club; the sponsoring of a "Teacher Appreciation Day" every nine weeks during which apples, carnations, and similar tokens were distributed; the participation in Youth and Government held in Nashville; and serving as co-hosts to the annual Hi-Y — Tri-Hi-Y Convention held in Morristown.

An oriental touch is added as members of the Beta Tri-Hi-Y try their hand in the art of fortune telling at the annual Harvest Festival.

The chain gang of T&I is off for another day of hard labor!!

Through the joint efforts of the Trade and Industrial instructor and the businessmen of our town, job opportunities and career training are made available to Morristown High School junior and senior students who wish to work and also attend school. An interest in a future career is promoted in addition to earning a high school credit.

This year Morristown High School representatives attended a convention in Memphis and the annual regional contest which was held in Johnson City. The club also won the softball championship game and attended a skating party.

Second place was won by the club in the state wide competition for their excellent project displaying the various stages of chair construction. A design of multi-colored upholstery was arranged for a background for the display.

The use of the MHS Library is made easier by the efficient functioning of the sixty-three members of the Library Club.

Students who maintain a good scholastic standing and endeavor to create a greater interest in reading and using books are eligible for membership in the organization.

Members are assigned duties to perform each period such as filing cards, pamphlets and newspaper clippings; shelving books; mending books and magazines; typing reading lists; and offering individual assistance to students in reference work.

The library is favorably recognized by the faculty and student body for the artistic and creative bulletin boards prepared on topics of current interest.

The Future Teachers of America, a national organization, offers membership to any student who might be seeking the field of teaching as a career.

After the members are acquainted with the basic qualities of the successful teacher, the senior members advance their knowledge in an actual teaching experience under the supervision of local elementary school instructors.

During the past year they attended a joint tea with the local chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma, distributed baskets at Christmas, participated in the Clean-Up Campaign, and sponsored a dart throw at the Harvest Festival.

an interest in our Roman Heritage . . .

The Junior Classical League strives to awake in its members an interest in and an appreciation for the times, life, culture, and language of the ancient Romans. By showing how much of our culture and language is derived from the Romans, it teaches Latin students to apply their knowledge of Roman history to modern life.

Any high school student of Latin is eligible to join this club, which is sponsored by the American Classical League. The Junior Classical League participates in school activities and has a clean-up project each year. Many members create interesting projects exemplifying life as it appeared to the ancient Roman. The most representative of these are displayed in the library each year.

Receiving the honor of "Superior" rating from the National Organization for Vocational Agriculture for the seventh consecutive year, the FFA further promoted modern farming methods. The Morristown Chapter sponsored and participated in the Hamblen County FFA and 4-H Fair, the Fat Calf Show and Sale, and the Soil Judging Contest. Other activities included participation in public speaking, an informative display of parliamentary procedure at Business-Industry-Education Night, Livestock and Dairy Judging Contest, the distribution of Christmas food baskets, and the promotion of fire prevention and farm safety in Hamblen County.

The baking ability of Diana Dearing, the FFA Sweetheart, is put to a test as she serves freshly baked cookies to members of the club.

Enriching student appreciation for art has been enhanced by the worthwhile projects sponsored by the Art Club.

The Portrait-Painting Booth at the Harvest Festival proved to be one of the most successful booths sponsored. The club spent many hours in designing patterns for the covering of the front windows of the school with Christmas scenes.

"Artist of the Month" is selected from club members on the basis of work accomplished. From those chosen, an "Artist of the Year" will be selected.

A trip to the Craftsman's Fair at Gatlinburg is always a highlight of the club's activities.

Suzanne Trent, talented member of the Art Club, adds the finishing strokes on Carolyn Williams' portrait at the Harvest Festival. Karen Sproles assists in displaying other portraits.

Bowling provides fun and relaxation . . .

The Bowling League is composed of ten teams sponsored by private businesses in the city. Each week the teams compete for the highest score. At the end of the season a trophy is awarded to the winning team.

The girls perfect their technique through regular practice and stiff competition.

The League endeavors to promote student interest in bowling by encouraging physical education classes to participate in the sport after school.

Profound standards of excellence and quality have been promoted in the choral program of MHS.

The Concert Choir of forty voices, selected by individual audition, have performed for various civic clubs, at the Nativity Scene, and in an informal Christmas Carol service.

Concentrated effort was apparent in the preparation of music for the East Tennessee Vocal Ajudication and the Senior Graduation ceremonies.

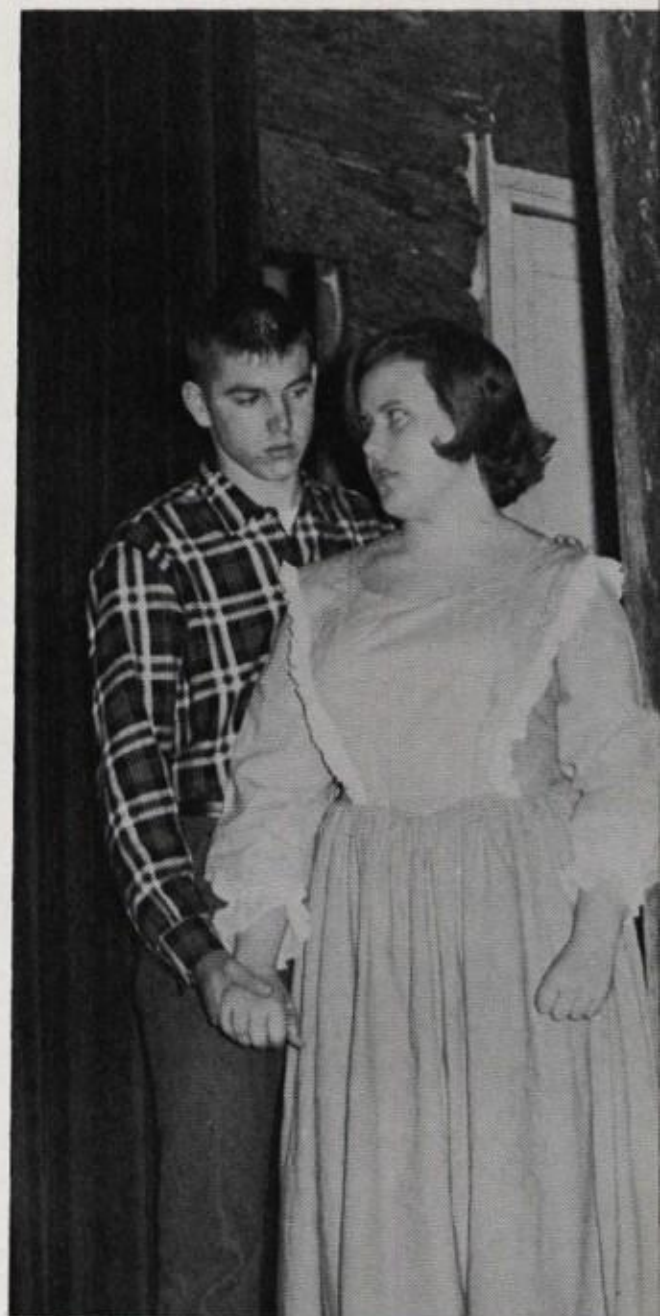

At the home of Mrs. Smith, the members of the Concert Choir prepare and enjoy a "spaghetti supper."

Glee Club Presents Down in the Valley

The music for "Down in the Valley", although composed and compiled by Kurt Weill, is interspersed with actual musical remnants of old Appalachian folklore. The Glee Club production was complemented with backdrop, sets, lighting, and the student voices. Mike Howell as the leader told the simple love story in song. The other leads were Karen Eaton as Jenne Parson and Lynn Ayers as Brack Weaver.

Mrs. Mable Smith, director of MHS Glee Club.

Students interested in stage performance and the pure enjoyment of singing are eligible for membership in the Glee Club.

Down in the Valley, the first fully mounted production of a musical given by the MHS Glee Club, was the outstanding accomplishment of the year.

Under the leadership of their capable director, Mrs. Mabel Smith, and the assistance of the Concert Choir, the Glee Club constructed the set; painted the backdrop; made the required costumes; and memorized the musical score.

The Glee Club also studies general music theory, vocal technique and choral literature in order to broaden their musical interest.

Members of the Glee Club complete a "most needed" project—cleaning the stage loft.

The Tri-State Marching Festival in Chattanooga was attended for the first time by the MHS Band. Under the new director, Mr. William Biddle, the band received a "superior" rating at the Festival.

The band represented our school well by performing at football games to boost spirit among players and fans, by marching in all special-occasion parades and by presenting the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Band members are motivated individually through competitive participation in class try-outs, the Solo and Ensemble Festival, and All-State Senior Band Clinic. Members chosen to represent this year's band were Jacqueline Beasley, Susie Foard, Collin Ballance, Gary Blackburn, Gloria Wright, Jeannie Ruescher, and Sue Medlin. Collectively the band attended band camp at Johnson's Bible College and participated in the East Tennessee Band Festival.

MHS finished season with

MORRISTOWN 26—KNOX EAST 7

The Hurricanes rolled over Knox East for their first victory of the season. The Orangemen aided by the 94 yard TD run by Ronnie Palmer netted 215 yards to East's 96. Tommy Davis led the way on offense with two TD's. Tommy Sanders, Gary Horner, and David Whitehead led the attack on defense. David Whitehead was named player of the week.

MORRISTOWN 34—ERWIN 6

Morristown, winners of last year's "Big 7" Conference, picked up their first conference victory of the '64 season with an impressive win over Erwin. Tommy Davis was chosen as player of the week with another outstanding game of defense.

MORRISTOWN 7—JOHNSON CITY 0

The state's number three ranked team, Morristown beat highly ranked Johnson City in a savagely fought battle at Burke-Toney Stadium. Grover Jarnagin pulled the Hurricanes through with a twisting 20 yard sprint in the last five minutes of the game. Defensive standouts were Gary Needham, Festus Talley, and Danny Scott. Grover was elected player of the week.

MORRISTOWN 6—KINGSPORT 14

Kingsport Dobyns-Bennett handed Coach Davis' Hurricanes their first defeat of the season. It was a hard fought battle that cost Morristown its number three ranking in the state. Mike Wright, Dennis Inman and Grover Jarnagin did the best job for the MHS gridders. Ronnie Palmer was player of the week.

MORRISTOWN 54—NEWPORT 0

Morristown bounced back from the first loss of the season by battering outclassed Newport 54-0. A variety of the Hurricanes got into the scoring column, including Grover Jarnagin, Ronnie Harrold, and Eddie Rhines. Ronnie Harrold was player of the week.

8-2 record . . .

MORRISTOWN 14—KNOX YOUNG 0

The Hurricanes rolled to a 14-0 victory at the expense of Knox Young. The Morristown defense played superbly as Gary Horner, David Whitehead, David Wade, and Danny Scott constantly threw the Yellow Jackets for losses. The Hurricanes secondary did an outstanding job by picking off three Young passes. Ronnie Palmer ran two TD's in the last five minutes of the game. Player of the week was Danny Scott.

MORRISTOWN 7—GREENVILLE 14

The Hurricanes suffered their second loss of the season at the hands of Greenville. The Greene Devil's defense proved to be too much for the Hurricanes. Morristown got on the scoreboard by Danny Scott picking up a Greenville fumble and racing 50 yards for the TD. Tommy Sanders was chosen as player of the week.

MORRISTOWN 13—JEFFERSON CITY 0

Morristown underestimated the power of Jefferson City and struggled for a 13-0 win. Playing well for the Hurricanes were Paul Wemlinger, David Wade, and Joe Brooks. Paul Wemlinger won the player of the week award for his fine blocking.

MORRISTOWN 20—BRISTOL 0

Morristown won their third Conference game by defeating Bristol. Ronnie Palmer took the opening kick-off back for the TD. The keyed-up Hurricane squad held the Vikings to a mere 34 yards rushing. Eddie Rhines and Stan Draper paved the way on offense, Paul Wemlinger and Dana Wampler provided the punch for defense. Rhines earned player of the week.

MORRISTOWN 7—ELIZABETHTON 0

In the final game of the season the Hurricanes defeated Elizabethton in a "Big 7" tilt. Grover Jarnagin scored the only TD. Dennis Inman, Festus Talley, and Ricky Teague led the attack on defense. Teague turned in the outstanding performance for player of the week.

The Morristown High School golf team sponsored by Frank Holder and coached by professional golfer, Fred Brown of the Morristown Country Club, enjoyed its most successful season, during the 1964-65 school year.

Although a neophyte organization of little team experience, the MHS golfers won their first seven match re-match competitions against Greeneville, Johnson City, Rogersville and Middlesboro, Kentucky to finish with a seven won, four lost record.

An excellent showing of third place at the East Tennessee Regional Match in Knoxville made this the first team from MHS to qualify for the TSSAA State Championship matches held in Nashville last summer where Morristown took eleventh place honors.

Notable honors received by worthy

To be chosen as an exchange student through the American Field Service is an honor which merits much recognition.

Henry Troy, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. Olin Troy, represented Morristown High School in this program. On August 17, 1964, Henry left for Kandern, a city in Germany on the edge of the famous Black Forest near the Swiss-French Border, to meet his German family—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lendle, sister Doris and brother Peter.

Morristown High School students will be privileged to share with Henry his marvelous experiences in his German school, community and home.

Aydin Eroğlu, our exchange student from Istanbul, Turkey, was cordially welcomed by MHS students.

Aydin is the son of Edibe and Emin Eroğlu. He has a brother Yalgin and a sister Gulgin. His American family is Mr. and Mrs. Tom Benning, sisters Gail and Leslie and brothers Mike and Richard.

While in America, Aydin was an active member of the Key Club and was especially recognized for setting the high school record for high jump on the track team.

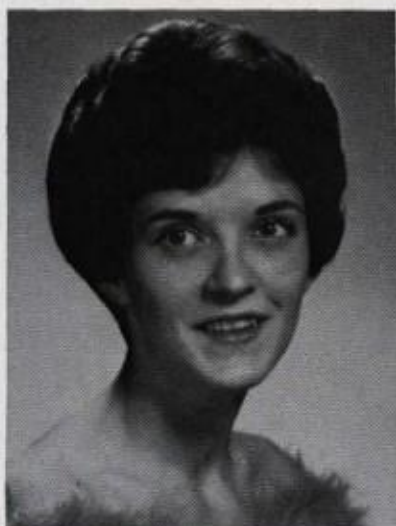

The local Rotary Club sponsors our Exchange Program and has been instrumental in making Aydin's year in Morristown a memorable one.

As a crisp breeze flowed through the air on December 16, 1964, the people of Morristown gathered in front of the high school to behold the oldest and best-loved Christmas Story. Each year the Christmas Pageant is presented by the senior class who elect the characters, build the setting and furnish the costumes.

The 1964 Nativity Scene was vividly portrayed by students with the members of the MHS Choir singing carols at appropriate times.

The 1964 Prom instills tender

Time out to admire the beautiful decorations and to enjoy the tasty punch and cookies.

Soft music and faraway mountains provide the "just right" atmosphere for slow dancing.

King and Queen of the Prom:
Doug Dountz and Patricia Marshall

memories . . .

Serving from the attractively arranged refreshment table are Mrs. W. C. Hayter, Mrs. Ruth Anne Bacon, and Miss Anna Frank Litz.

The talent and ingenuity with which the Junior Class planned, decorated and presented the 1964 Prom made this final tribute to the seniors a most enchanting and memorable event.

The Southern plantation scene, the vine-covered trellises and a mural of far off mountains created a romantic atmosphere. Soft lights, mellow music, and dancing made real the prom's theme, "Tender is the Night."

This night is filled with anticipation and excitement as the ITAKHA cameraman snaps just one of the many upper classmen calling for his date.

Standing amidst winter's magical wonder, our school is not merely a part of a beautiful scene. It is rather a part of our lives—offering its aid to those who wish to receive aid. Its greatest offering is the gift of knowledge and the opportunity to apply that knowledge. Its gift is not easy to receive. Not only does knowledge require a wish, but a burning desire for a deep and broad sense of understanding. This understanding provides the basic foundation for wisdom; and from this basic foundation great ideas spring, great achievements are realized, and great men come forth to build great nations.

The snow melts and changes the scene, but so do all things change. In its own way nature adds and subtracts as time demands. Now time demands an addition to our school, but to us who leave, it will always remain in our memory as it now stands.

—Bonnie Lovelace
